

Swansonia dictyocarpa (Tarcoola Pea) Bitter Well 2013

Stewardship of Endemic Endangered Species

25 Activities Stewardship – Raise the Profile of your plant. Make it an ICON

The Arts

1. Establish a herbarium of local plants
2. Design a floral emblem for the school based on your species
3. Illustrate local flora.
4. Develop a photographic gallery of local species for the school and the community and post it.

Technologies

5. Develop a blog of your project and maintain it.
6. Research and develop rare plant ID sheets for your local area for community citizen science identification.
7. Post data on Bowerbird.

Health

8. Plant a display garden at the school with interp.
9. Start a threatened species orchard at school.
10. Plant a butterfly garden at school.

Sustainability

11. Revegetate a region in your community.

Geography

12. Map the local flora
13. Map a transect of flora
14. Map local weeds

History

15. Research Goyder's Line (At Quorn? What's in your area)
16. How has the local landscape changed in the past 50 years. Photo records.

Science

17. Record the life cycle of the plant.
18. Observe insect visitors when in flower over a period and photograph.
19. Enter scientific observations on BowerBird.
20. Register a Scientist in Schools Program.
21. Research a local endangered species.
22. Research Plant, Insect animal webs for your species.

Mathematics

23. Measure, record and graph plant growth.

English

24. Keep a journal. Research record.

Excursions

25. Visit the State herbarium, local park or Botanic Gardens. (Nature Play Passport.)